Lennert Van Sever

4+ years of experience in web development. From UX/UI, React.js to Node.js, GraphQL and neo4j, it's all in my field of interest.
My passion is crafting online tools that empower people to be more productive.

EXPERIENCE

FULL STACK DEVELOPER
Borealis

We create technology-driven products to improve business and customers experience. I work as a full-stack developer with a focus on the Frontend, doing everything from gathering requirements to implementation. Mostly working with React.js, Redux and Node.js in a Scrum environment.

18 - Now

LECTURER IN WEB DEV
Erasmus University
College Brussels

Next to my full-time development job, I teach on part-time basis university college students the fundamentals of web technology and programming.

Jan 20 - Now

FULL STACK DEVELOPER
European University
Foundation

I was solely responsible for the development of the Erasmus+ app and the Erasmus dashboard. As the only developer, I learned how to build a project from scratch to production and how to communicate effectively with non-technical colleagues. I mainly worked with React, NodeJS, MongoDB and MySQL.
